- 6.2 If the Client fails to return the Vehicle to Europcar, Europcar shall be entitled at any time to retake possession of the Vehicle, wherever found and from whosoever has possession thereof and any Waiver option the Client may have taken out shall become null and void. Any costs incurred in recovering the Vehicle will be for the account of the Client.
- 6.3 If the Client wishes to extend the Rental Period beyond the return date reflected in the Rental Agreement, notice must be given to Europcar and authorisation first be obtained from Europcar in respect of the extension. - 6.4 In the event that a debit card was used to pay for the Vehicle, the Client must visit a Europcar branch in order to arrange an extension before the due date of return as set out in the Rental Agreement. Failing to act in accordance with this clause will result in a breach of the Rental Agreement and Europcar will immediately negate all Waivers taken out by the Client for the entire Rental Period and shall be entitled to take any lawful measures, after notice or reasonable attempt to give notice to the Client, to recover the Vehicle from the Client. The Client shall be responsible for all recovery costs.

In the event that the first authorisation by the Client was not sufficient to settle the Liability, the Client herewith consents and authorises a further debit on the cardholder's account without further approval being required from the Client or the card being presented again.
